May 2005 - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Orchard in Bloom Landscape Competition winners 2005

Orchard In Bloom

This Garden Show based in Indianapolis, is one of America's leading garden shows. The show, held annually on the first weekend in May, features professional landscape artists, decorative outdoor furniture, table and floral designs, exciting children's programs and much more.

This year the Landscapes of Orchard in Bloom were judged by three renowned Landscape judges

Jo Ellen Sharp Meyers- Advanced master Gardener and Garden Writer

Gregory M. Pierceall, Professor of Horticulture Purdue University

Mark Zelonis- Director of Gardens and Grounds Indianapolis Museum of Art

The awards that went to

Best of the Show- Litchfield landscapes, Carmel IN.

This was a classic design complete with an oriental garden structure.

Most Innovative Design- Vine & Branch Inc., Carmel IN.

The design incorporated a formal pond complete with bronze fountain that blended into a rain garden with native plants.

People's Choice Award- which was voted on by the attendees.

Vine & Branch Inc., Carmel IN.

Best Micro Garden- Becker Landscape, Indianapolis IN.

With water gurgling out of a rock this micro garden was a hit.
